The photograph shows an archaeological excavation site. In the background, there is a building with a thatched roof and walls made of light-colored bricks or mud. A person in a blue shirt and light shorts stands near the building, holding a camera. The foreground is a dirt area cordoned off with red and white striped tape. A small, rectangular, light-colored object, possibly a table or a piece of equipment, is in the center. To the right, a large, closed white umbrella is visible. In the bottom left, there are two black plastic buckets. The scene is surrounded by lush green trees and vegetation.
